

WAR SUPPLY BOARD OF ALLIES DINES

Foreign and American Members of Great Unit Revive Memories.

VISITORS HONORED BY 700

Gen. Dawes Is Kept Away by the Death of His Mother.

Memories of the war were revived and pledges of the Allies to each other were renewed amid cheers last night at a dinner given at the Waldorf in honor of the Military Board of Allied Supply, the foreign members of which arrived here last week.

The board, which during the latter part of the war controlled the transportation and distribution of supplies to the allied armies, was made up of Brig-Gen. Charles Jean Marie Fayot of France, chairman; Brig-Gen. A. C. McHardy of Great Britain; Col. Luigi Luzzi, Italy; Brig-Gen. Charles G. Dawes of the United States and Col. Adolphe Cuniot of Belgium. All the members were at the dinner except Gen. Dawes, who was unable to attend because of the death of his mother.

More than 700 persons, most of whom are prominent either in civil, financial, military or industrial life, were present. Paul D. Cravath was toastmaster. Speakers were Gov. Nathan L. Miller, Major-Gen. James J. Harbord, Assistant Secretary of War Wainwright and the members of the board. Gov. Miller was applauded when, after tracing briefly the work of the Military Board of Allied Supply, he said:

"The lesson to be drawn from that unity of control is that we must continue the same unity to secure the blessings of peace which were won for us on the battlefields. I do not care in what form that unity may be manifested, but the right thinking people of the world must have unity—unity of thought, purpose and effort to maintain right and truth and justice, and if we have such unity there can be no doubt of the result."

Gen. Fayot described in detail the events which led up to the organization of the board and told of its work. He praised the genius of Gen. Dawes. Gen. Harbord in turn praised Gen. Fayot, referring to him affectionately as "Old" Fayot. Col. Luzzi of the Italian Army said in part:

"When one has gone through so many years closely bound to one another in the common determination of eventual victory, when we have shared the same hopes, the same anguish, the same hardships, and when we have lived through those final unforgettable hours of the great victory, we remain forever comrades in arms of the great war."

Seated at the speaker's table were: General Armstrong, British Consul-General; Bernard M. Baruch, Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, Brig-Gen. W. D. Connor, Dr. Walter Dammrosch, Major-Gen. George W. Goethals, Father Francis P. Duffy, Bishop Arthur S. Lloyd, Major-Gen. William C. Lane, Capt. Vance McCormick, Brig-Gen. H. H. Lord, Brig-Gen. Guy E. Tripp, Gaston Lambert, Baron de Cartier de Marchienne and Col. George Van Horn Moseley.

FEDERAL MOTOR CUTS PRICES ABOUT 22 P. C.

All Models Reduced Under Company's Plan.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 28.—The largest cut in motor truck prices so far announced was made to-day by the Federal Motor Truck Company, of Detroit, Mich. The price reduction averages about 22 per cent. on all its models and is the fourth cut made by the company in the last two years.

Reductions on all this company's models are as follows: $700 on the one-ton and one-half-ton; $550 on the one and one-half to two-ton; $500 on the two to two and one-half-ton; $300 on the three and one-half to four-ton; $250 on the five to six-ton. Reductions of $800 to $900 are made on heavy duty trucks on the light and heavy duty tractors. M. L. Pulcher, vice-president and general manager of the company, said that the new prices were not cuts in the accepted meaning of the word, but represented the final accomplishment of a plan of administration that has taken many years to develop. Our company has no burdensome financial overhead, no long-term preferred stock indebtedness, no interest or principal charges on bank obligations that we must pass on to our customers. We have never had a large, excessive inventory to burden us. Another important element which has contributed materially to these low prices is the increased efficiency and capacity of our new factory. Production has been cut as low as they can be cut to-day, and our customers are again receiving the advantage of these reduced costs.

"We believe firmly that only by a drastic readjustment of prices can the industry be stabilized and confidence be restored."

LUBRICATED MEDICAL COLLEGES ATTACKED

Head of Surgeons Deplores Oligarchic Influence.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—Medical foundations which "are their ways greased with the oil of powerful interests enmeshed behind a hundred flat top desks" were the objects of an attack by Dr. John B. Deaver in his presidential address before the closing session of the American College of Surgeons to-night.

While condemning particularly the "institution of full time professorships in some of our foremost medical centers," Dr. Deaver scathingly referred to "midnight oil of those plumed gentlemen" who made it possible.

"Those influences, backed by vast financial power, have sought to make a clinician by the mere attachment of the name," Dr. Deaver declared.

"I deplore anything that detracts from the high standard of our common service to humanity," he said. "Moreover, our profession believes that a system of full time salaried teachers backed by powerful financial forces tends to the deterioration of our art and to the deterioration of our studies."

At no time did Dr. Deaver mention the particular medical foundation that was the object of his attack. His reference to oil, however, left no doubt in the minds of his audience as to the particular institution that was under bombardment.

DETECTIVES SEEK BOMB IN CATHEDRAL

Conservation of Bishop Dunn in St. Patrick's Guarded by Police Detail.

ARCHBISHOP PRESIDES TO SPEAK ON FAR EAST

New Prelate's Titular See That of Camuliana—Will Be Auxiliary Here.

Because of rumors that a bomb explosion or other anti-Catholic demonstration had been planned, more than forty detectives under command of Sergeant Gegan and Brown of the Bomb Squad searched St. Patrick's Cathedral yesterday before the services in which the Right Rev. John Joseph Dunn was consecrated Titular Bishop of Camuliana and Auxiliary Bishop of New York.

Detectives acted as ushers at the outer doors of the church, halting every one who had a package and examining the contents. Nothing happened during the day, however, to confirm the rumors that caused the search and precautionary measures.

The ceremonies began at 9:30 o'clock and occupied more than four hours, with Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes presiding. He was assisted by the Right Rev. Bishop John J. O'Connor of Newark and the Right Rev. Joseph H. C. Conroy, Auxiliary Bishop of Ogdensburg.

At the close of the ceremony Bishop Dunn knelt and kissed the hand of the consecrator, the Archbishop, who then began the solemnization of the Pontifical mass.

In the sermon, which was delivered by the Right Rev. Mgr. Michael J. Lavelle, rector of the Cathedral, Bishop Dunn was praised as an organizer and particularly for his activities in raising funds for extension of church work at home and abroad.

Among the Knights of Gregory attending the service were Nicholas P. Brady, James Butler, Gerald M. Borden, Victor J. Dowling, Thomas P. Farrell, Dr. Edward L. Keyes, Morgan J. O'Brien, Michael J. Mulqueen, Thomas E. Ryan, Dr. James J. Walsh, John J. McGraw, Thomas F. O'Rourke and Bernard F. Coleman. Bishops and other clergymen from all parts of the country were present, among them Archbishop-elect Michael J. Curley of Baltimore, Bishop John T. McNicholas of Duluth, Bishop Edmund P. Gibbons of Albany, Bishop William A. Hickey, Providence; Bishop Daniel J. Curley of Richmond, Va., and Bishop Thomas M. O'Leary of Springfield, Mass.

Following the ceremony Bishop Dunn entertained the clergy, monsignors and bishops at luncheon in the Hotel Commodore. He received a gift from the clergy of the diocese.

At night the Catholic Club tendered a reception to Bishop Dunn, when Judge Alfred J. Talley was the principal speaker.

Van Orden Petition Invalid.

Following an almost continuous session of the court lasting from 2 P. M. on Thursday until 5 A. M. yesterday morning Supreme Court Judge Cieslerich declared invalid the petition of Edward L. Van Orden, independent candidate for Sheriff of Bronx county.

TOPICS TO-MORROW IN CITY CHURCHES

Coming Armament Conference Will Be Discussed by Many Pastors.

Dr. Kelman Will Give His Observations Covering Two Summers in Orient.

In many New York churches to-morrow ministers will take as a topic the coming armament conference which may be an epoch making event in the betterment of world conditions. One of the prominent pastors to take up the question of world peace will be Dr. John Kelman of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Kelman, who to-morrow completes his second year in the pulpit where he succeeded Dr. Jowett, feels he is qualified to speak on the situation in the Far East. Since coming to America, he has spent two summers in the Orient and has become somewhat familiar with conditions there. He deplores any movement that would lead to war with Japan. Old John Street Methodist Church will begin to-morrow its 155th anniversary, when Bishop W. F. Anderson of Cincinnati will preach at 10:45 on "The Supreme Need of Our Times," and at 7:45 on "Books That God Writes."

At the 2 o'clock afternoon service Henry H. Curran, Republican-coalition candidate for Mayor, will speak on "New York City," and Bishops L. B. Wilson and W. F. Anderson will speak on "The Armament Conference and Other World Events" as related to the future of Christianity. At 7:45 James S. Coward will conduct a testimony service. On Monday at 11 A. M. the New York Methodist Preachers Meeting will visit the John Street Church in a body. The address will be given by Senator William H. Calder. At 1 P. M. on Monday, Bishop Anderson will speak on "America's Opportunity for World Leadership." Tuesday at 1 P. M. Bishop L. B. Wilson will speak on "America and Disarmament."

Special Music in Evening.

At Calvary Episcopal Church, Fourth Avenue and Twenty-first street, the Rev. Raymond S. Brown will be the preacher at the morning and evening services. The choir will render special music in the evening. On All Saints Day there will be two services. Holy Communion will be celebrated at 7:30 and the names of those who have died during the year will be read. At 11 o'clock there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion and a brief address.

The Council of the Church Service League, composed of the heads of all the organizations of the parish, will meet on Friday afternoon at 5:15. This council coordinates the work of the parish and plans for new work as a whole. Effort is made to save overlapping of the work of the organizations.

Reformation Day, observed every where on the last Sunday in October, is being celebrated in Lutheran churches all over the world to-day. Regarded as the day commemorating the beginning of religious freedom and the separation of Church and State, it holds a high place in the church calendar, but as an epoch marking date in secular world history it is just as noted. It was 401 years ago that Martin Luther, a teacher of theology in the university, nailed the ninety-five theses to the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, affirming an approval that shifted sceptics and boundary lines and permitted the worship of God to be free. Dr. Charles E. Jefferson, of Broadway Tabernacle, this week sent three of his laymen to the mid-western protest meeting of Manhattan Congregational Church with friendly greetings and wishes for continued success in the building up of that congregation. Dr. Ernest, acting pastor, was able to report growing audiences at the Sunday service, that the Sunday school is nearing 100 and that the other activities are well under way.

Dr. Emmet will discuss to-morrow morning "Family Life in Heaven." In spite of the declaration of Jesus Christ that "there is neither marriage nor giving in marriage in heaven," Dr. Emmet finds numerous Scripture passages to warrant a belief that family life continues beyond the grave. At the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, corner of South Oxford street, Brooklyn, the minister, the Rev. Dr. Charles Carroll Albertson, will preach at 11 on "The Message of Religion to the Men of Our Day," and at 7:45 on "The Soul's Supreme Call."

A very attractive programme has been arranged for to-morrow night at the Greene Avenue Baptist Church, Brooklyn. It will be Young People's Night. The Rev. Charles Francis McKoy will preach on "The Liberty Bell." Mr. Gilbert Higgin, former president of the Baptist Young People's Union of Brooklyn, will speak on "A Great Faith for a Great Task," and Mr. Harold W. F. Anderson, president of the local Baptist Young People's Society, will speak on "Some Facts We Cannot Afford to Forget."

An artist of world wide reputation will be heard at the Greene Avenue Baptist Church, Brooklyn, Thursday
